

SUSTAINABLE REDEVELOPMENT

Sustainable Redevelopment can lead to long-term benefits to the environment, public health, and the quality of life of the surrounding community.

October 1 – 3, 2007
The Brown Hotel
335 West Broadway, Downtown Louisville

Day 1 October 1, 2007

1:00 Half Day Bus Tour of Charrette Sites and Sustainable Redevelopment Examples

Optional, must register for the bus tour in addition to the conference

5:30 – 7:00 Walking Tour

Starting at The Brown Hotel and ending at 21c, Led by Rick Bell, US Marine Hospital, Louisville

7:00 – 9:00 Reception Sponsored by Gill and Augusta Holland at 21c Museum and Hotel

700 West Main Street, Louisville

Day 2 October 2, 2007

8:00 – 8:30 Outside the Crystal Ballroom: Materials Distribution and Coffee

8:30 Introductions and Structure of the Day – Crystal Ballroom

8:40 Welcome to the Conference – Crystal Ballroom

David R. Lloyd, Director, U.S. EPA Office of Brownfields and Land Revitalization

9:00 Morning Plenary

Location: Crystal Ballroom

Speakers: Dan Helmuth, Helmuth and Bicknese, LLC

Mark Meyer, Intuition and Logic

Decline and Renewal: Five Mile Creek Greenway Partnership: Fire Chief Billy Hewitt, Tarrant, Alabama

10:45 Break

11:00 Morning Breakout Session – Case Studies of Sustainable Redevelopment in Practice

Urban Case Studies

Location: Crystal Ballroom
Moderator: Lauren Heberle, University of Louisville
Speakers: Gill Holland, Gallery NuLu (11:00)
Doug Pierson, (FER) Studio
Sustainable Approaches to Area-Wide Redevelopment in Milwaukee, Wisconsin: Benji Timm, City of Milwaukee (11:25)

Rural Case Studies

Location: Broadway A
Moderator: Herb Petitjean, Kentucky Brownfields Program
Speakers: A sustainable approach to rural redevelopment: Brian Williams, American Farmland Trust (11:00)
Brownfield Redevelopment in Southern Indiana: Lessons Learned in Tell City, Roy Funkhouser, Linebach – Funkhouser, Inc. (11:25)

Small Town Case Studies

Location: Broadway B
Moderator: Kyle Hendrix, Indiana Brownfields Program
Speakers: Mayor David Cartmell, City of Maysville (11:00)
Rewriting the City: Incorporating Design into the Reuse Plan, Bob Wilkerson, Barge, Waggoner, Sumner and Cannon, Inc. (11:25)

12:05 PM Lunch – Crystal Ballroom

Welcome to the City of Louisville, City of Louisville, Deputy Mayor Larry Hayes
LaBelle Riviere-The Ohio River, Past, Present and Future, Charles E. Parrish, Army Corp of Engineers

1:10 Afternoon Breakout Sessions – Collaboration and Planning for Better Results

Panel 1: Cross-Border Collaboration: Spanning the Ohio River for Sustainable Redevelopment

Location: Broadway A
Moderator: Peter Meyer, University of Louisville and Northern Kentucky University
Speakers: Marc Elliot, River Ridge Development Authority
Eileen Pickett, Greater Louisville, Inc.
Richard (Rick) Dickman, Town of Clarksville
Art Williams, Louisville Metro

Panel 2: Urban Corridor Approach to Sustainable Redevelopment –Park Hill Corridor

Location: Broadway B
Moderator: Michael Norman, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Charles Cash, Louisville Metro
Susan Hamilton, Louisville Metro
Lauren Heberle, University of Louisville

Panel 3: Small Town Approach to Sustainable Redevelopment – The Story of Stella, MO

Location: Broadway C
Moderator: Kristeen Gaffney, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Little Town - Big Dreams, Planning for the Sustainable Revitalization of Stella, Missouri:
Dr. Verle Hansen, United States Environmental Protection Agency
David Doyle, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Mona Hart, Stella Betterment Committee

Panel 4: Integrative Design and Green Engineering Approaches at Cleanup Sites

Location: Crystal Ballroom
Moderator: Donna Webster, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Dan Helmuth, Helmuth and Bicknese, LLC

Mark Meyer, Intuition and Logic
The Three Dimensions of Energy Integration in Whole-Building Design: Robert Koester, Ball State Center for Energy Research, Education, & Service

2:15 Break

2:30 Afternoon Breakout Sessions – The Benefits of Sustainable Redevelopment

Panel 5: Addressing Air Quality, Urban Heat Island, and Climate Change with Sustainable Redevelopment

Location: Broadway A
Moderator: Gary Victorine, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: A STAR is Born--Louisville's New Air Toxics Program: Art Williams, Louisville Metro (2:30)
Brendan Daley, City of Chicago (3:00)

Panel 6: Achieving Watershed Protection with Sustainable Redevelopment

Location: Broadway B
Moderator: Andrea Zimmer, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Building Community Consensus for Quality Growth: Jane Fowler, Southeast Watershed Forum (2:30)
The Ohio Lake Erie Commission's Balanced Growth Program: Kirby Date, Cleveland State University (3:00)

Panel 7: Bringing Nature and Recreation into the Redevelopment

Location: Broadway C
Moderator: Felicia Barnett, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Bringing Nature into the Redevelopment: Claude Stephens, Bernheim Arboretum and Research Forest (2:30)
Designing Communities for Active Living: the Roles of Urban Trails: Gregory Lindsey, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (3:00)

Panel 8: Making the Case for Infill Redevelopment

Location: Crystal Ball Room
Moderator: Chris Harrell, City of Indianapolis
Speakers: Vanishing Bluegrass: Protecting Farmland with Smart Growth: Mark O'Bryan, University of Kentucky
Lauren Heberle and Carol Norton, University of Louisville (2:30)
Jay Ellis, Jeffersonville Main Street, Inc. (3:00)

3:45 Break

4:00 Afternoon Breakout Sessions - The Benefits of Sustainable Redevelopment Con't.

Panel 9: Addressing Public Health With Green Design

Location: Broadway A
Moderator: Ann Carroll, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Adewale Troutman, Louisville Metro (4:00)
Opportunities to Design Healthy Places: Tina Forrester, Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (4:30)

Panel 10: Using Brownfield Redevelopment to Address Storm Water

Location: Broadway B
Moderator: Stacy Swartwood, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Speakers: Green Infrastructure for Management of Wet Weather Flows At Brownfield Sites: Bob Newport and Mary Ann Gerber, United States Environmental Protection Agency (4:30)

Panel 11: Redeveloping to Benefit Disadvantaged Communities

Location: Broadway C

Moderator: Matt Robbins, United States Environmental Protection Agency

Speakers: Mayor John Antaramian, City of Kenosha (4:00)

Utilizing the Past to Revitalize the Future of Small Communities: Amy Potts, Rural Heritage Development Initiative and Main Street Programs (4:30)

Panel 12: Combining Environmental Function and Aesthetics in Sustainable Design

Location: Crystal Ball Room

Moderator: Susan Hamilton, Louisville Metro

Speakers: Productive open space systems: Jane Amidon, The Ohio State University

Space Race - The race for sustainable energy and land-use: Jason Kentner, The Ohio State University

Re-working: Architecture and Systems of Production: Karen Lewis, University of Kentucky

5:15 Adjourn

5:30 – 7:30 NBA IN & KY Networking Reception at Blue Grass Brewing Company
4th and Broadway, across from the Brown Hotel

Day 3 October 3, 2007

7:30 – 8:00 Coffee

8:00 Welcome to Day Three of the Conference – Crystal Ballroom

8:05 Update on University Activities – Crystal Ballroom

8:15 Morning Plenary: Introduction to Charrette – Crystal Ballroom
Mark O'Bryan, University of Kentucky

8:55 Charrette – Introduction to Each Site
Loop Islands – Crystal Ball Room
Rhodia – Broadway B
Peddlers Mall – Broadway C
Participants will be organized into tables of 10 in each room.

9:10 Begin Charrette
refreshments available during Charrette

11:30 Report-out of Charrettes

12:15 PM Break

12:30 Lunch – Crystal Ballroom
SMARTe: A FREE Web-based Tool to Help Communities Overcome Redevelopment Obstacles,
Felicia Barnett and Ann Vega, United States Environmental Protection Agency
Green Remediation on the path to Sustainable Redevelopment, Carlos S. Pachon, United States Environmental Protection Agency

1:30 Overcoming Barriers to Sustainable Development at Cleanup Sites – Crystal Ballroom

Issues of Politics, Psychology, and Justice, Tony Arnold, University of Louisville
ER3- Overcoming Liability Concerns while Developing a Sustainable Future, Peter Neves, United States Environmental Protection Agency

2:15 The Economics of Sustainable Development Practices – Crystal Ballroom
Peter Meyer, University of Louisville and Northern Kentucky University

3:00 Break

3:15 Tools to Assist Communities – Crystal Ballroom
Harnessing Markets and Government for Smarter Growth, Geoff Anderson, United States Environmental Protection Agency

4:00 Closing Remarks – Emerging Issues in Sustainable Redevelopment: What’s Next on the Horizon?

4:30 General Conference Adjourns

1:30 - 5:15 Optional Public Health Roundtable: Public Health and Brownfields Community Training Program - General Public is Invited - Broadway A
